

SULAM PHOTOGRAPHY RELEASE

Date _____

Dear Parents,

There are times when photographs/video are taken in the course of the school year and kept on file to be utilized in general P.R. materials including social media. Your permission grants Sulam the use of these images in perpetuity. No names will be attached to these images in any materials. On the occasion of a newspaper article or other P.R. materials that would warrant name identification, specific permission will be requested prior to use.

Additionally, Sulam faculty often participate in ongoing education programs that require observation of students, the collection of educational data, and photographs. These materials will only be used for the purpose of learning. No names will be attached to information shared or images used.

Please indicate your permission for the following:

My child,

- has my permission to be photographed for internal and educational purposes, with no identifying language
- has my permission to be photographed for PR and social media purposes with no identifying language

My child,

- does not have my permission to be photographed for any purpose
